The June “Play Your Way to Prosperity” Experiment – Comprehensive Results

30-day experiment proves that you can “Choose Prosperity”...

The notion that we have within us the power to shift external circumstances based on the thoughts and beliefs that we hold is very appealing.

At the same time, the “prosperity” mindset is so radically different from the perspective that most of us have become accustomed to holding that we often harbor strong doubts about whether this approach can actually be: rational, solid and something we can rely upon.

At <http://www.ChoosingProsperity.com> we take a very practical stand by inviting visitors to our site to ‘prove’ the validity of our approach for themselves.

And they did!!!!

In our second annual experiment, thousands of individuals participated in a month-long process designed to support shifts in prosperity consciousness.

Initial data was collected beginning June 1st 2007 and concluding data was collected beginning June 30th 2007. The sample size was statistically significant, and the findings...

...well, you’ll have to judge the findings for yourself!

II. Initial Experiment Description

It's time to prove to yourself - once and for all - that you have the ability to generate more prosperity in your life.

This event, sponsored by <http://www.choosingprosperity.com/> will feature 30 days of activities, events and surprises designed to help you 'lighten up' and become more magnetic to prosperity in all forms.

Tracking of the experiment (day-by-day) can be found in the archives at <http://choosingprosperity.typepad.com> or in a downloadable e-book chronicling the 30 experimental processes at <http://www.choosingprosperity.com/experiment.htm> ****

III. The Rationale: Why an Experiment? By Elyse Hope Killoran

The “Law of Attraction.” The “Power of Intention.” Deliberate Creation.

Are these things that we are supposed to take on blind faith?

In the best of situations, my personal conviction that Universal Laws run the show and that we can harness these laws to become more magnetic to our good, 'rubs off' on my students and clients.

But, when it comes right down to it, one's ability to trust in all of this, when it becomes challenging to hold on faith alone, is impacted by the quality of one's own personal life experience.

So, when you set the game up the correct way, you will have established objective proof that this works and you'll have a powerful anchor to hold steadfast as you move ahead on your Deliberate Creative course.

As anyone who has heard me speak or who has read my story on my web site knows, the 'experimental' approach is the key to my success.

In 1999 when I was first introduced to the Abraham Science of Deliberate Creation materials, I was strongly attracted – and equally resistant. I remember feeling that Abraham-Hicks' message was so clear and so practical anyone could use it. While, at the same time, I felt I would be flaky, 'woo-woo' or 'new-agey' if I really bought into this stuff.

Having a background in Experimental Psychology from Franklin & Marshall College served me well. I decided that a rigorous experimental approach was in order.

In December of 1999 I chose three significant things that I wanted very much but did not then currently have and, for the next 15 weeks, I followed the Abraham principles like a recipe.

By April 2000 all three deliberate creations had come to pass. (For more details, visit <http://www.choosingprosperity.com/mystory3.htm> .)

I'm happy to share my stories with you. But, when it comes right down to it, my stories will be most useful if they serve as a catalyst - intriguing you enough to set you on the course to proving that these same laws are in effect in your own life.

And that is why we are focusing our attention for one month on creating a grand experiment...

2007 Prosperity Shifts – Participant Comments

The magic started even before I got your email today Elyse. This morning in the mail I got an unexpected cheque for £45! It's a dividend payout for the few pension shares I have. I didn't think it would be this much and the great thing is I didn't have to do anything to earn this! What a thrill and what a great way to start the Prosperity Experiment with you all. I can't wait for more magic to unfold. I am just so excited now! Abundant Blessings to y'all

I do really see that it is through play and loving what you do/what you want that attracts the life you want to you. I am able to be in play and joy and freedom more and more often, and am grateful for this knowledge. Abundance is mine more and more everyday, and I know, through personal experience now, that I can and do manifest exactly what and who I want and/or need in the moment. It is truly about being playfully alive in each moment--the NOW--that the magic we are seeking happens. Thanks for the experiment Elyse; it was well worth it!

Yesterday was our first day, as you know. In the afternoon, I got an email, sent to a group. The blogger, who happens to also be my copywriting coach, said he'd pay $50 to two people for choosing his 12 best posts. The first two people to give a good reason why would get the gig. I was the second to reply. I got $100 from the Prosperity Game and I'll be getting $50 of "real money" put into my PayPal account this week!

This is a wonderful game! Each day, as I enter into this game, I realize that God, or whatever you choose to call this beautiful energy, is bringing me more beauty. Yesterday I spoke to a beautiful lady who wants to add my school in a highly visible area on her website and I will add her to a highly visible area on my website. She has an essential oil company and I am a Certified Aromatherapy Teacher. We spoke and decided that we will work these links together to bring us more abundance and prosperity. She is a chemist and knows quite a bit about how to create pure essential oils without solvents and chemicals. I thank God for this bit of love that goes into my life.

I have successfully used prosperity principles before in my life but had drifted away from them. An event that happened just before the Prosperity Experiment reminded me that using these principles should be an ongoing part of life, not an act of last resort. It has strengthened the faith I already had in prosperity principles, and the results have been clear and rewarding.

My business doubled. I didn't even realize it at first!

I see we share our prosperity evidence here. A dear friend took me to lunch today - completely unexpected! And, last night, another dear friend gave me the most stunning set of Japanese antique bottles - simply breathtaking; another completely unexpected treat.

Although I haven't checked the mail yet, I am feeling an inner expansion taking place. This is an expansion of the horizons of my imagination for what is possible with regards to prosperity. It's like waking up one morning and you've grown a foot taller without expecting it! When accessing my imagination, I now find it to be vastly expanded, which is kind of surprising, since we all have been told that our imaginations have no limits. I guess what I didn't realize is that there are no limits to the expansion of the limits of your imagination. I'm growing in this respect, and if my imagining is growing, then my ability to attract is likewise growing. THAT'S AWESOME! I am enjoying the virtual blessings that I am already experiencing and I am looking forward with expectant anticipation for physical manifestations beyond my present ability to imagine.

Hi. I feel that there has been a lot of inner movement and some deep programming shifting inside. I have seen results in that some of my burning questions around clarity of my life's purpose are taking form and that is one of the prime places I'm working. Attitudinal shifts abound and I expect, as I keep up with the sound advice and inspirational reminders, more prosperity will grow from the inside out. I am grateful. Thank you.

My evidence of prosperity came in the form of a job. I am a freelance script reader. Lately, there haven't been very many jobs coming in. Then, yesterday afternoon, I got a request for a rush job! Totally unexpected! And even better, it was a very straightforward job. I knew exactly what to say about the script. My evidence of prosperity today was the way my day worked out where I had the time to get everything done that I needed to do without feeling rushed. I ate healthy food all day and really took care of myself.

Wow! On my first day of playing the Prosperity Game I received $400 cash - effortlessly and quite unexpectedly! For me it is the confirmation that the principles we work or "play" with in the Prosperity Game are powerful and real. Being part of this game is a way of confirming to myself that I am part of the flow of abundance. I am allowing myself to receive, in trust and knowing that the Divine is playing along.

Although I did not have any drastically huge examples this month, the experiment secured my core belief that prosperity is from the inside out. I have played the game before so the thoughts were not new to me but participating in the experiment renewed my "intention." I did receive some wonderful benefits and a few things have come into my life [like a sponsor for my new radio show] but the overall benefit I received was a helping hand through a very difficult month wherein I was able to keep my eyes on what prosperity means to me and the positive flow of energy in my life. I am surrounded with positive things and I embrace them all!

The more I play the more I am becoming truly grateful for all the possibilities that exist. Up until now I was too afraid to really expand my vision. But since I have been playing the game I had a dream where I learnt that my thoughts are so powerful and limiting them is really ridiculous. My thought is the seed of what I create. I can't explain it all here in words but I do know now without a doubt that I am the creator of my life. I accept full responsibility for every thing that happens to me. That is very freeing in itself - to know that I'm the one making things happen for me and nothing else.

Just before beginning this experiment, I decided I was going to make a conscious effort to start my online business. I have been working towards it on and off for 2-3 years now without many results (mainly because of money). About a week ago, I decided I was going to find a way to get my online business started, and kept an open mind about the opportunities available. Once I did that, several opportunities have come my way (all free!) that are allowing me to take the first steps toward earning an online income.

One of the biggest realizations was that, for me, prosperity isn't about visualizing about or having more 'stuff'. I already have too much 'stuff'. Visualizing buying and having more 'stuff' is one of what I consider this nation's biggest problem-- our need to over-consume. It's about having prosperity take care of me, which can include saving rather than spending. The spending part is easy - far too easy. In fact, that's what goes on for me every single day. Spending. The challenge for me is to have prosperity stay, to provide me a reserve, a comfortable cushion in case I want to do something bigger later. So I don't have to think about where the money will come from all the time. The in-and-out flow is fine, but for me, it causes anxiety. What I want is ease and stability. And that's part of the care with prosperity.

As soon as I made a mental commitment to be open to abundance an invitation came for me to immediately attend an online marketing seminar that gave me the specific insight needed at this time. At the seminar I was led to another full day workshop that will take place next week. Money was not the issue; my availability was the deciding factor. Today I spoke to a dear friend who is a master craftsman and has been telling me (for years now) that he would teach me jewelry making -- a craft that I wanted to learn for a longtime. Well, Tuesday afternoon I am starting! What a breakthrough. I expect miracles everyday!

There has been a shift in my personal relationship with my husband and I am attracting more clients in my business! I feel lighter!

My boss at my court reporting office told me Friday he found an invoice he hadn't paid me for, so I will get that next week, and last night at a party, I picked up three new clients for my healing business! Prosperity is already here with more on the way! I am excited because the more I have, the more I can give and I love to give. It feels wonderful. Thank you!!!

Evidence: I went to the hair salon yesterday with my two kids. We all wanted haircuts and highlights for the summer. I wasn't sure how much she would charge, so I stopped by the bank and took out $150, which is a lot less than I might have expected to pay for all this service. When we were finished and all looked gorgeous, we went to pay and she casually said to me, "That'll be $150." Woo Hoo!

I have studied the universal laws for a few years now and, although I have woven them into my life successfully at times, this experiment has introduced me to clear, simple ways to take "inspired action" on a daily basis. And I am learning HOW to shift my energy during challenges. I am coming to a place of really understanding what inspired action is - and am letting go of the belief in having to work hard! This has been a gift.

I'm just feeling that I am coming more and more into alignment with good things and prosperity every day. The more I practice with the prosperity game and also with the 100 items, the more crystal-clear prosperity is becoming as a most likely, probable reality. The more real it becomes in my mind, the more I resonate with it and the less resistance to it exists. This works like OHM's Law. Power is reduced by resistance. Reduce resistance and power is automatically, and irrefutably, increased. Want Prosperity Power? Reduce Resistance, and ALLOW!

I feel there has been a big shift in my energy. My faith and trust has been greatly enhanced as shown by awareness of God working in my life. There have been so many coincidences and the right people appearing in my life at just the right moment this last month. My awareness of what is said around me and what is in front of me to 'see' is truly amazing. Thank you, thank you, thank you.

During the last week I received a phone call from a colleague I hadn't heard from since last fall. She just landed a significant contract and invited me to join her in the project. A reminder that being open to how prosperity presents itself is really important. A big thank you to the Universe! And thank you, Elyse, for your guidance and inspiration.

I had a late start on the experiment and I was doing days 1,2 and 3 on the third, trying to catch up without rushing. My husband was out golfing so I had some peace and quiet. He was due to come home and it had been raining all morning so I figured he'd be quite wet and tired. But I needed more time to complete my tasks so I asked the universe for just a little more peace and quiet time. Just then he called and said, even though it's about to thunder, he wanted to play nine more holes, would that be ok? I said "Sure! Just be careful!" I gave a little wink to the universe. ;)

Hey, this is working and I'm on board this month to earn 1/3 more than my previous job. From the inside-out requires a real feel for how it feels, if you will. And I now know what that means. Thanks for that.

I had been reading Byron and felt compelled to call a dear friend. I put it off to finish reading and tend to some chores. When all was complete I then called my friend who had just gotten off the phone with another friend on the opposite coast. They were talking about the very same topic. We picked up from that point and the very readings I had just finished were precisely applicable to the struggles of another friend who was struggling to understand a particular dark place that she had just entered. My reading became a vehicle for her understanding and not being defeated. The flow does work amazingly so!!

At my son's baseball game the other day, a friend of mine told us that her neighbor was moving and their house would be up for rent. Well, we raced over there, checked it out and it is perfect for us! No mold, good neighborhood, more than three times the space. We will be moving in within a month. The landlord is so flexible and great. We are so grateful to be stepping up.

I just want to share that I started playing the Prosperity Game again after being away from it for a year, maybe more. After just a few visits, my husband and I had a significant financial windfall! This was such a beautiful reminder about how deliberate creation works. I admit I had forgotten how powerful and immediate it can be! Even more significantly than that, I would argue, is that my attitude towards prosperity, and in general, is making a turn back towards the positive. I am remembering how important attitude, intentions, and awareness of my thoughts all are in appreciating the present and creating a wonderful future. THANK YOU for this website, this community, and for the Prosperity Game. Lots of love.

I have been with Elyse on and off for quite a number of years. Also I am a passionate Abraham student. I would like to share this info: I was born and raised in New Orleans and I had the opportunity to play the prosperity game before Hurricane Katrina hit. At that time I was most interested in moving to a particular state for better career opportunities. Well, I ended up in that state with a salary that is at least twice what it was in New Orleans. I can't say it enough. The prosperity game and everything else that is offered here really works.

Very interesting! Yesterday, late afternoon, a neighbor couple stopped by (not something they usually do) and gave me a jar of homemade jam. (A little present from the Universe!) I invited them in and we had a rich and thought-provoking four-hour conversation! It was a blessing to all of us! I felt truly rich!

When I was playing the prosperity game, one of the things I listed was to have the means to go to concerts or plays. I have allowed the next 5 days of free concerts and a play with a guest. I have won 2 tickets to a concert, 2 tickets to see a play, and 2 weekend passes for a festival. I am so happy and thankful. Imagine, I have invited those people who are obviously excellent receivers, and think it's good luck. But I know different.

This experiment really helped me in many ways. I am noticing things I haven't noticed before and am open to miracles. I trust that good has always come to me and more good is on its way. I have been practicing suspending my disbelief and I notice a difference.

I seemed to have discovered more love in my life. Strangers are a lot friendlier and regularly smile and talk to me without any effort on my part, which is no mean feat in a large city. My relationship with my husband, which was always good, just seems to get better and better. This experiment has also prompted me to seek other forms of self-help that has helped in clearing my mind and releasing a lot of the stress around money. I wake up each day with an increasing sense of optimism. Thank you so much Elyse for this opportunity!

It proved, finally, once and for all - for me - that I can attract what I want in my life. It also showed me what inner obstacles I have to work with moment to moment in order to remain clear within myself to have pure positive intention and the ability to attract what I most wish for. Thank you, Elyse, for bringing this very affirming experiment to us, and thank you to everyone who participated and shared their experiences. The support of this experiment has been invaluable to me. I am much happier now, more consistently, with more understanding of the dynamics of positive affirmation and attraction than ever before..

I was really stuck on figuring out what to spend my $19,000 check on and put it off for days, knowing I'd have to address my resistance eventually. I did (tapped with EFT) and found a website to shop for clothes based on my own measurements and suddenly I see how small my view of the financial world has been. As for evidence, today we sold another copy of our e-book and I got an unexpected gift certificate from this

I have already begun to see evidence of prosperity. I found 2 dollars while doing laundry over the weekend. Also, I keep finding coins everywhere! The quote means to me that I have a choice in my life. I have to hang on to the idea of letting go and letting good things happen to me, without trying to "make" it happen.

Events and materializations were happening so fast, it was challenging to keep up with: MAJOR shifts in opportunities, cash flow, gifts arriving from "no where", etc., just had to prioritize where to focus my energy during the last month, it was so full!

I have a new feeling of gratitude for living in a perfect home. I no longer see it as something I need to feel like I am going to lose tomorrow. There is a reason I am in it in the first place, and I am now more grateful for the feeling of calmness afforded by the house and grounds. This house will be mine for as long as it suits our needs. I am aware of this now, and feel some relief from giving up my fear of loss. And so it is!

Prosperity means Truth. Living the Truth of what God says we are. Abundant, Successful, Healthy, Loving, Peaceful, We can do all things, worry for nothing, the Father and I are One, He's in me and I'm in He. Being in the image of, wanting for nothing, calling those things that are not as is, worrying for nothing. That's what prosperity is: The Truth will set you Free! FREEDOM!!

I am growing every day, becoming more mindful of everything and everyone in my life. I have seen some wonderful things this month despite the fact that my participation was sporadic and incomplete: milestones with activity on my 2 websites, which had been so grindingly slow to function; several problems solved rather neatly as opposed to remaining overwhelming; a new job offer, and a breakthrough in a particularly difficult relationship... all for no "apparent" reason! Thank you Elyse.

Just played the Prosperity Game and went back to view some of my previous entries. One of my visits last year was about taking a cruise out of Italy and going to Greece. Guess what? Just got back from Italy and Greece on a phenomenal cruise with Mike Dooley and made lots of great new friends. Wow. Manifesting is a wonderful thing! Thank you, Universe.

Elyse, this experiment was an absolutely wonderful experience! There has been a huge shift in the way things are just flowing to me now. I feel more relaxed because I'm not striving and worrying - I'm just intending and expecting instead! I am a voice-over artist and the bookings I'm getting now are not only more plentiful, they are for wonderful clients who pay me well and the projects are interesting and fun. It would be wonderful if there could be an on-going project like this that would keep us all interacting with each other. A daily email with an inspired action and then a place to blog about what we experience. It was so wonderfully inspirational to read about other people's successes and thoughts. I love playing the Prosperity Game and I intend to play it more regularly. There is always a major shift in my finances when I play it on a consistent basis. Thank you so much Elyse for all the wonderful things you do, and for the tools and inspiration you've given us all to improve our lives. I look forward to the next experiment!

It is incredible and so exciting to see energy shift almost before my eyes. I did not write every day but I did participate and there is a new flow of great possibilities that I can see, feel, and soon, touch. I love to be a part of a bigger vision because of the power it holds. What is amazing is that it only took a couple of words, resonating with my energy, to completely jump-start my sense of well-being. Thank you Elyse and the company of travelers on this path. I hope we can do this again!!

I woke up with the most delicious sense of happiness and well-being for the past few days now. I feel grateful all through my body. I already know today is going to be a good day.

I loved the reminder that what you focus on is what you most easily "see" in your life. That was very powerful to me. Also, I actually got goose bumps several times when I received my check from the Universe. It was so beautiful to receive the check from the Universe with unconditional love. Thank you so much for those experiences.

It works!! My husband got a job yesterday. We have been ok'ed for a bridge loan from our bank. Unexpected money came in by way of unexpected book sales, just the amount I needed to upgrade our web page. I'm feeling on fire with the energy of new projects.

It works... I received "unexpectedly" a gift of $20 and while I had on my list purchased professional organization services for my office-study, my neighbor offered and fulfilled a promise to help me get my office-study area in order with no price tag! It works!

It works...I first found myself attracted to this website and reading through everything Elyse had to say. It all resonated with me. Though I've heard people say many times that if you believe, you will receive, I didn't understand how. No, I haven't signed up for the PPP yet but I probably will in the future. Since reading the site I have attracted a check for $5000, a church near my new home (I recently relocated) where the pastor is the first cousin of my previous pastor, the movie the Secret, and the beginning phase of an online business. I can't wait to see where this is going to go.

It works! I received a $40 gift certificate on Saturday from the parents of the YMCA soccer team that I coached this spring. They wanted to show their appreciation for my coaching. Thanks!

Remarkable results. Started mid-month upon suggestion of a friend that was surprised to hear me 'down' about certain aspects of my business and future. Totally pumped me up. Especially the car/butterfly experiment. Have told a lot of people to give it a go personally and professionally. Amazing!

I took my car in for routine maintenance that was estimated to cost $576. I also had a squeak in the brakes and thought that it might be expensive. But, the total cost was $538 even with fixing the brakes. Thank you universe.

My most significant shift is that I now have a "sense" that there is something greater at play...and I have found faith.

I have attended Abraham Hicks workshops. I do believe that we create our reality but have held a position of skepticism with regard to the extent that that is possible. I've had many successes and disappointments at my age but have always attributed that to my "actions". I am just starting to open to the possibility that thought form can be just as powerful as having plans and goals and working on them. I'm one of those many people who worked their way through college and grad school with no financial support from family and have always held to the belief that you need to work hard for everything in life. This experiment is chipping away at that belief. Thank you!

I did get my proof that this works. The most valuable thing for me was the day you asked us to send an email to the universe and we got one back. 2 days after that I got my proof.

Just had to laugh... it works, even in small ways. Like opening the container of cat litter to find it had TWO coupons inside for the cat food I used instead of the one promised. And an invitation from the manager of the pet supply to come work there if I ever was interested. Go, Universe!! Prosperity is the ability and wherewithal to live life to the fullest, enjoy the wonderful world around us and take joy in sharing. It includes inner feelings, friends and family and pets, the grace of whatever Divinity means to you, and bluntly the money to put it all together. And I want that prosperity, and am ready to accept it fully and joyfully into my life as a free gift from a generous Universe.

This experiment gave me permission to make a space daily to take a deeper look at the Law of Attraction and the ideas underlying the whole of it...while focusing on consciously choosing to put Elyse's concepts to use in my everyday "being and doing". I am profoundly grateful and will forever keep my compass pointed to Choosing Prosperity in every area of my life. (It feels like a habit after a month of days of checking in) Thanks Heaps!

I love the fact that a prospective client that I was worrying about wrote to me BEFORE I had to contact them and with details about what they were looking for that were beyond what I had hoped for! My television show got half of its funding so far from GIFTS, rather than sponsorships where I now owe something back! YES!!!! I have been sharing my truth even more and showing up and getting tons of comments about how passionate I am! YAY! The fact that Elyse has done this experiment for us all is huge! Thank you Elyse!! People are responding to the shift in my self-respect by coming up to me and asking more about my business. Praise GOD!!!! I am grateful!

Yipee! We just sold a 3-month ad contract that I didn't even know was in the running. Thank you, Universe!!

My thinking has changed around attracting prosperity from the inside out. This game has been fun and on days I didn't even know what to spend the money on, but I quickly got over that! The major thing that has dramatically changed is that in the times I have been shopping since this experiment began, the only limit I have had was time. I've been able to afford everything I've wanted. Things that I wanted previously and were too expensive were suddenly in the sale and affordable. Things that I had been looking for for years suddenly appeared. I'm still bouncing off the walls from my premium bond win! It feels like I won the jackpot! I've had so many insights during this period and am getting better at workshoping and going downstream. Even better is that I'm feeling good primarily and the by-products are that things I've wanted are coming to me.

FOR THOSE OF YOU WHO HAVE NOT SENT OFF YOUR CHALLENGE TO THE UNIVERSE: I just did this tonight and Elyse was right about getting something back right away. I will not blow the surprise and tell you what, but I can say that I was deeply touched by it and it was PRECIOUS!!!! THANKS ELYSE!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Thank you for this opportunity to go deeper into a process of commitment to manifestation and releasing of fear. I see that my life is already blessed in so many ways. I wish to release old stories of lack, focusing more of the time on attraction and being positive and trusting. I look forward to the surprise gifts of the coming weeks.

I just want to say THANK YOU for this experiment. I have witnessed evidence of prosperity showing up in my life during this inspiring and empowering month. I know now, that I am the creator of my own reality. Many gifts have been given to me. Some of them were a true, magical surprise.

I was treated to lunch the other day by a friend and I was grateful for that for I was on the receiving end. Being open to receive has been a challenge for me but I am working on it. Thank you GOD! I also received some good news that a house I had for sale for over 7 months will finally be occupied. Thank you, thank you, thank you. And just reading everyone's feelings is prosperity to me. Thank you for that.

The past 7 years have been truly awful for me and last month following the latest tragedy in my life (trust me I use the word tragedy in the truest sense of the word). I decided it was time to make a promise to myself to overcome all the past losses and make the most of the rest of my life. I intend to attract prosperity in every area of my life this month including personal, emotional, physical and financial. I can feel my strength and determination grow and I know that by the end of June I will be blessed with the joy in living, loving and creating again.

Day 4 - I've already received an unexpected check in the mail! This stuff works!! I am open to the loving abundance of the Universe and I enjoy knowing that Spirit supports me in everything that I do. What a wonderful sense of freedom I have knowing that the Universe is conspiring for my benefit! Thank you for reminding us how to tap into all that "is"!

This journey has been one of Universal Expansion for me. I asked for understanding and clarity of my life and the path I am taking. I learned so much about my natural resistance, or habitual acting, and I am much more aware of being in the moment with myself as I watch how I act and the underlying feelings and reactions to my prior perceptions. WHOW!

There has been, over time, a practical explosion of energy that has enlivened and fostered prosperity. This prosperity has been both financial and Spiritual. In a practical fashion, I have more perfect clients than ever. I now, just this new month, have my own office full of the right energy to bring greater success for them and me. And, even more importantly, I KNOW my worth! I know that I am an amazing and delicious man! Thank you Elyse for all that you have been a catalyst for. You and I, and others, know that Spirit is living large through you...

Keeping an eye out for prosperity, what I have noticed so far is an eerie, almost immediate, manifestation of my thoughts into reality. It's not so much about money as it is about people, relationships, and opportunities. I notice that I feel empowered in areas where I struggled mightily before. Diet, health, and exercise are now unfolding with ease and consistency. Is this a result of prosperity consciousness? I don't know. We shall see. One of the things on my list is a 100-pound weight loss. Well... I'm on my way.

A dear friend of mine emailed to offer me a ticket to visit and work with her on a book she is polishing! Work and fun together, how great is that! And my sister called to say she was coming to visit me next month. So many wonderful gifts. It works! Thank you for such a beautiful, amazing experiment.

I'm really enjoying having this every-day support. Even when I've had things get me off track/upset, I get back to the blog or to checking my mail or thinking about the daily question and I get back on track. Today I just felt I was vibrating at such a higher rate. Thank You Elyse!!

Since the 2nd week, my life has been filled with serendipitous events and people showing up in my life (many of them willing to assist me in my journey!)

A friend of mine, on about day 3 of the prosperity experiment, emailed to say she was going to give me her platinum pass to a 2 day conference with the Dali Lama in Sydney next week - and event I wanted to go to but didn't feel I could find the money for. Wow.

I am so happy and grateful that I chose to be a part of this experiment. It helped me keep the faith when I realized two days ago that the money in my bank was less than I needed to complete a house move next week. But I took a deep breath, stayed in a trusting place and kept affirming that I would let the Universe provide. Completely out of the blue I got news that I am owed a few thousand euro - I never knew this! It is on the way now. Then I got a call from a past client about some work to do right away and this morning I had a terrific meeting from which (again completely unexpectedly), I was asked to make an application which would, if successful, lead to a substantial grant. In fact the deadline for applications has passed but the person I met was so keen on what we discussed that he offered to extend it for me. I am flooded with more money and potential money than I could have believed possible, all in 48 hours. Thank you creation, thank you Elyse, thank you Abraham-Hicks. Bless us all in our prosperity experiment.

I bought bleach refills for my teeth and the woman gave me a free tube of whitening toothpaste made by the same company which I passed on to my husband, Awesome, I love sharing when I get more than I need, it makes me feel so good, thank you Universe. Also the other day I was expecting a check for $250 or under, I got one for $700!!! Thank you so much!!!

I have received many wonderful blessings since (and before!) the beginning of this experiment! I am starting my own business, and money is currently a bit tight, but ways to earn more keep flowing, attendants at parking garages allow me to leave without paying, wonderful people offer to help me to advertise and build my business, articles I have submitted are being accepted and published, and the guidance I ask for everyday is regularly coming through and leading me towards more opportunities for prosperity and abundance! IT WORKS!

It shows up. It seems it is working !!! I'm a slow learner and not a sensitive person in one sense. Since experiment started, despite the fact that I did not put much energy to in it, I meet more and more people who are interested in the service and product I provide. I also meet more very nice people in my direct selling approach who know or want to learn about choosing prosperity, the Secret and similar topics. That's great !!!

It was only a DAY after I started the experiment and made the commitment to choosing my experiences and creating my life, when I received an email about a job opportunity in a town I want to live, and paying MORE than I ever asked for myself! I have been looking for a new job on my own, with my intentions sent out, but without contacting any of my networking friends...and this opportunity came from one of those networking friends! If you ask me, that's proof! I am sooo grateful for this experiment, for the tools I'm using, and for this not "new" mindset, but this FOCUSED mindset.

It has begun working in small ways in my life. I have been visualizing parking spaces and they invariably show up. I had a surprise credit on my power account, I thought of a friend who I hadn't heard of for awhile and she phoned that night. When I receive these gifts I am remembering to say "Thank you". I have noticed to that I am feeling more positive and have met some really helpful people in my daily encounters. It is surely changing my life,

For me it's about maintaining the focus and commitment and this experiment really helped to keep that focus where it needed to be and it inspired a far greater awareness and recording of gratitude for what I do have and for what showed up than I might have previously have done. As a consequence, I felt better about myself; my life and my mood then positive affected other areas of my life. A great opportunity to move forward. Thank you.

Since I started playing I have been able to pay off two large bills that were causing me stress, I have reduced my housing costs for the next two months by over $2,000 so that I can further reduce the financial challenges I have been having, and I have chosen to express only peace in my finances going forward. This helped me to release one option that would have put me back into a crisis mode of thinking and acting. I feel light and free, and my resistance level has gone down. Thanks for the chance to share.

Elyse! Aloha! I work from home taking inbound calls plus doing various home bases business. I lost a client in May and completed the training on 5/23 for another. But I haven't gotten my login and password yet and it's been 3 weeks out of work. Usually I would be freaking but this time I was amazingly calm and trusting that it would be ok. Today I got a gift of $800 from my stepson for some help he wants from me in his business in the future. The help amounts to only a couple hours so this was more than generous. Thank you Elyse and thank you God! I am prosperous!

Aloha again! I can't believe I just posted unexpected income yesterday and today there is MORE! Thank you God! My sister-in-law owed me $60. Today I got an express mail package with $300 and a $100 grocery card. I am prosperous! This stuff works! Thank you Elyse and Thank You God!

In the beginning, I was very plugged in and consciously taking steps or shifting my thinking but by the end of the month, I found that I was behaving more prosperously with out even thinking about it.

Hello again. Well, I am a believer!!!! A few weeks ago I related that I was working on creating 7-8 thousand Dollars in order to take a seminar to help people stop smoking. Yesterday I received $ 8,000. I am so happy and delighted that it came in @ record time. Feel it, hear it and see it.

I just wanted to give an update on how my first week went. On day 1 I went to work (at a restaurant) and I made the most money I have ever made at that job in a single shift. I have been really working hard to consciously turn my financial flows around to the positive by taking responsibility for the things I did to make it negative. Then on day 4 we ask the universe to give us proof that this is working and I got the second job I have been wanting to get and it was exactly what I asked for from the universe and instant my financial profile and perspective changed. Then today on Day 7 I got a call from the production company of a commercial I did back in March who asked me if I would be available to do radio ads for the commercial. Which is more money that was not expected. This is all working and every day it gets better. Everyone stay focused and all that you desire will come to you.

Interestingly, last night, my 23-year-old son 'accused' me of always being happy! He's having some challenges in his life and last night I was given the opportunity to share the concept of 'choosing' your experiences. I've been living and sharing this truth for some time but last night was probably the first time my son could relate on a feeling level. At the end of the 1.5 hr conversation he felt better and was closer to the truth of choice.

Since I began this experiment I have been manifesting abundance in lots of ways. My partner, who is normally not very verbally demonstrative, has been incredibly open and loving in the past week. I have also manifested more work and therefore more money, which is always good. I am finally starting to feel like I am in the flow and that all I need to do is ASK and it is given all ways!!! Thank you for this fabulous opportunity and thanks to the Universe for all the blessings I have and all that I am receiving.

It WORKS! It's been a week or so and since starting this month's experiment, a French general has come to visit our house, I was asked to participate in a radio interview, I received capital gains on some stock and we are hairs away from getting an apartment in central Paris! It works, it works, it works!!!

Boy does it work!!! In the first week of this experiment, I have gotten some contract work that was so coincidental. I walked into a county office building on other business, noticed a poster, took down the phone number, came home and called and got the work the next day!! My ex gave me some money and that was a real shocker!! Another person repaid a loan!!!

My husband is starting to catch on to this. A week ago, we pulled into a supermarket parking lot. When we turned into a space, our car came face-to-face with a car pulling in from the other way. It turned out to be a man who had hired my husband to do some jobs for him several years ago. We chatted and went on our separate ways. I told my husband then that I had a feeling we'd be hearing from the man again soon. Sure enough, he called my husband this weekend with an offer to do a ton of work for him!

The last few days have been amazing. Since starting the game, I have had two new clients requesting quotes for purchase orders from a vendor partner site I registered my company for months ago. Then, today, I get a call from a friend who is a software developer who wants me to help him market his software, which I already have potential buyers and connections for...truly awesome.

Well - I was content with an abundance of social invites (unusual for me) and it was very nice. Then today I come home and there's a modest, totally unexpected check in my mailbox. Almost the exact amount I just spent on a new pair of slacks & couple of shirts! Seeing how this is an experiment - it seems to be working! Woo hoo!

Prosperity comes in so many different forms! Today as I was stopped in traffic, waiting to turn left to get gas at the least expensive station I know of in my area, I took note of the price. But by the time I had turned and pulled up to the gas pump, the price had just been reduced by five cents per gallon! It felt like a personal message of blessing and abundance to me--and so it was.

I had an amazing event happen. My bank account diminished to next to nothing, BUT! Instead of "fretting", I was accepting, and deliberate in my manifestation. I received a check for $250 for a writing job, and then a new client "came on board", and paid me exactly what I asked for (no haggling), via PayPal. Today - I'm rolling in money!

Well, it is working. After months of audition drought, I finally had two last week. And this weekend, while working my other job, I was given a piece of personal equipment by a fellow worker that I had been meaning to get for myself for quite some time. Thanks all and keep the energy flowing

I have played the game for only two days. I was offered a job for $10,000 more than I am making now and my health insurance company sent me a letter saying an old check had not been cashed, that I should verify with them that I am the proper recipient -- and they will send me another check!

Money is the visible sign of a Universal Force because EVERYTHING is the visible sign of the Divine, Eternal, and Infinite Universal Energy that manifests itself in every form of existence. The true nature of all of us IS this infinite, eternal, all-abundant Universal Life Energy. We are intended to live life to the fullest, and that means financial abundance as well as abundance of love, health, joy, and personal fulfillment.

Last week was my most prosperous week EVER.

Okay, it works and today that's my focus. I was inspired last week to get a Life Purpose follow-up coaching. The fabulous coach intuitively asked me to "read" for her, and I did. She said the reading was totally right on. She had just paid for an intuitive reading the morning before and my reading was right on with her morning reading and she had an important "aha." So I am now owning one of my life gifts of "X-ray Vision" which I didn't yet know how that was expressed and beginning to do intuitive readings.

In the last week, I've found $10 in a coat pocket, received $1500 for an old car, my husband got a $2400 raise, I found a $20 movie gift certificate in my wallet, my business is flowing, my clients are rockin' and I've attracted a lot of great people and experiences. And I will continue to look for more!

I didn't participate as fully in this year's experiment as last, mostly because I've been so busy working on a new business that will bring me more wealth than I've ever had before! I so appreciate the existence of the choosing prosperity community. My prosperity has shifted miles in the past year as a result of playing The Prosperity Game and regular communication from Elyse through e-mail and experiments like this one. Thank You!!

The evidence of my intentions showed up on a daily basis. I know, without doubt, that my thoughts influence my reality and I can honestly say that this experiment was a complete success for me! Thank you Elyse!

I was completely different doing the experiment this year versus last year. By living the program Elyse has put together I find my life flowing much easier. So this year I was able to relax into the idea of playing my way to prosperity. I have had many amazing references show up that this works. Most recently I just received an unexpected check for $650.... what a nice surprise after returning from a 10-day workshop. Thanks for everything.

Through this experiment, I feel that I was able to learn to relax about money and prosperity. I learned how to be more open to seeing prosperity in my life - to be more aware of all the little things that add up to make my life great. I realized that there are many more aspects of prosperity than just cash in hand, and it opened me to see and recognize and welcome in all these other aspects - from a more fun and loving relationship to spending more time working at my heart's desire to spending more time with friends to drinking in the beauty of a summer evening to thoroughly enjoying a long bike ride. When I am in a happy positive mood, I can actually feel an improved vibration around me - something I've never really allowed myself to experience. And, mostly, I think this experiment gave me permission to receive moments of happiness and laughter and beauty and spontaneity and see them as part and parcel of living a prosperous life.

I became more aware of the good things in life. I noticed and thanked the universe for whatever experience manifested. I'm still working on some aspects or blocks but hey this is an ongoing affair, the better I get the better it gets. Thanks for this opportunity!

We have been studying and practicing the Way to Prosperity for about a year. We have had many manifestations. We have shared this with many friends and seen wonderful things happen. This Experiment just grounded us more and more in the beliefs that we can do and have all these things we wish for and grow spiritually doing it. We have a wonderful zeal for life and what we will create for our future. We receive things everyday; you just have to see what you are receiving. Thank you for your dedication.

While participating in this experiment I experienced tangible results. I received assistance from unexpected people. I've had doors open in certain areas that were closed before. I am at peace and no longer frantic about my finances and how I will pay my bills. I feel great and inspired to do great things. I want to thank you for sharing your wisdom with us and for helping me change my life.

I have loved taking part in this year's experiment. I noticed significant manifestations almost every day. This has been a prosperous month and I look forward to keeping the momentum going. I found a site where I could download and create my own dynamic vision board. I have had great fun with this and incorporated some of the wise words from the experiment. Thank you Elyse, for enabling this very rewarding and fun event.

The biggest shift for me is an unexpected one -- I feel an abundance of time. I can't describe how this affects everything I experience. In the past, I've felt that I had "time claustrophobia" -- there was never enough time to get everything done. Now I find that time feels fluid, completely available. As a result, I'm so much more rested and joyful. And, yes, the traditional measure of abundance -- money -- flowed in, too. Mostly I feel that's because of lowering resistance. I have 25% more clients; my health insurance premium (which skyrockets each year) had no increase. But what I notice is the shift in my energy around money from fear to curiosity -- "I wonder how the universe will transform my intention into something wonderful. At day 29, I've accomplished all but two things on my list of 100. I really feel them as real. What a gift -- thank you so much!!!

I found that opportunities to take big leaps, both mentally and practically arose this month, but not only that, I found that I knew what action I needed to take to achieve the result I wanted and the courage to take those steps was easier to come by. I also played my own version of the prosperity game offline and it has done wonders to change my inner dynamics with money. I feel so much more relaxed about finances. Also small gifts of money found their way to me unexpectedly, which was nice. But definitely there has been an internal shift around money as I no longer feel poor, but dynamically abundant.

Truly - what you focus on, grows. I became aware of more and more good coming into my life - now it seems that it just pours in! The only thing limiting my "income" (whether money, love, friendship, opportunities, or other kind) is my ability to receive. I am not used to having such abundance in all these areas, so I have been fairly moderate in my wishes. But they have all been exceeded! I am learning to open up for more. I am so thankful, so awed - every area of my life seems to have lifted to new heights, totally without effort! And it was all possible through play instead of hard work! This is the greatest shift for me - I realize that I don't have to work so hard, I can allow instead. Let it be easy... I also see PROSPERITY differently now - I used to think of it in terms of money, but I now understand it as a totality of flow in all areas of my life. This is really SOOO much better than money alone!

At this moment, I FEEL abundant and blessed. Because my feelings have changed and my desire to attract prosperity is clear, I know that I have changed and will make a commitment to live the life I want. I will allow myself to realize that I can now achieve, receive and BE everything I desire. This is a much desired and appreciated shift. I believe that abundance in the form of money, relationships, opportunities, fabulous experiences and so much more is flowing into my life. This experiment has been a wonderful tool in my process of growth. The most significant experience for me occurred on June 27th with the invitation to make a wish for everyone in the group. As I began to read the beautiful thoughts and well wishes from the respondents my spirit opened to enormous joy and kinship. I too was able to give from my heart and the glow that I felt that day is still with me. I can only imagine that this level of wholeness is the essence of what will attract more love, joy and prosperity. I am grateful. Thank You!

This has been a wonderful month! It has coincided with me watching the Secret movie several times and tomorrow I will facilitate a workshop to 'Test the Secret'! The combined impact of this and participating in the prosperity experiment have increased my sense of well-being, trust in the Universe and belief that I can choose what shows up in my life. During this month I have set my intention to receive unexpected money and it has happened on more than one occasion. I have been offered a contract for nearly 2000.00GBP; I have secured other work for 1,000GBP and it looks like I'm on track to receive a grant for 7,500GBP! None of these sources of income were expected and I am so, so grateful. Even in the area of health and wellbeing I have finally managed to book a detox retreat - just for me! I am taking time to give to myself and so have more to give to others. This has been a truly remarkable experience, and I can only say thank you from the bottom of my heart for helping me remember who I really am. Thank You.

This was a wonderful experience. My attitude around abundance and prosperity has begun to shift, and I am eager to continue this shift. Thank you, thank you, thank you!

Announcing: The First in a Series of Energetic Alignment CD's

From the Desk of Elyse Hope Killoran:

In all my years of studying techniques to support the creation of prosperity, it has become clear to me that the most valuable tools we can have in our 'prosperity toolkits' are those that enable us to shift our vibrational states – on demand and in an instant.

I teach my clients dozens of processes that support the shifting of energy – but most people find that their most powerful shifts occur when they are personally led, step-by-step, through an energy process in such a way that they can simply relax into and 'allow' the vibrational shift to take place.

The truth is, our conscious minds do not know the difference between something that we are vividly imagining and something that is actually happening. Therefore, when you allow yourself to get swept up in a multi-dimensional imagery, the very cells of your body become programmed to the new energetic field that you have conjured in your imagination.

And, on a metaphysical level, the Universe can't tell the difference between vibrations that you are holding in response to something that you are experiencing in 'reality' and vibrations that you are bringing forth in response to a vividly imagined experience. Therefore, the more time you spend 'radiating' prosperity (even in your imagination), the more prosperity will be on its way to you.

Anchoring Prosperity: Volume One of the Touchstone Series

Now, for the first time, you can avail yourself of some of the powerful multidimensional processes the Prosperity Partnership Members have used to create significant, deep and lasting changes in their vibrational fields. (For Prosperity Partnership member testimonials go here.)

The 'Anchoring Prosperity' CD will help you to become effortlessly aligned to the highest vibrations that are consistent with:

- a) having a deep faith and truth that you are being supported and provided for
- b) relaxing fully into the perfection of the present moment – free of all cares and resistance
- c) holding a 'holographic' image of already having what you most want so that the law of attraction can easily match it and bring it your way

The three guided energy processes that have been inspired for this CD are remarkably different – and fit together like the pieces of a puzzle. Used together, these three processes create the ideal energetic base from which every new "Deliberate Creation" should be launched.

Process #1: Anchoring Prosperity

This opening energy imagery is focused upon 'anchoring the energy of prosperity' in the cells of your body.

Process #2: The Energy of Allowing

The second process will enable you to become an energetic match to the vibration of 'allowing' – any time and anywhere. Just pop the CD into your player and feel your resistance melt away as you become a perfect match to the purity of your heart's desires.

Process #3: The Art of Asking

Finally, using the third process, you will create the ideal environment for launching "step one" of the Deliberate Creation process - "asking" - while simultaneously holding yourself in an open, allowing place of "receiving."

Are you ready to engage this unique tool to become a true match to prosperity?

- Yes! I'm ready to create change in my life -- from the inside-out.
- Yes! I want to move beyond just 'thinking' about prosperity to becoming energetically aligned with prosperity on a cellular level.
- Yes, I'm ready to acquire my own prosperity consciousness 'energetic adjuster' so that I can experience a 'vibrational attunement' any time I choose!
- I'm ordering the Anchoring Prosperity CD for only $24.95. (plus $4.00* shipping and handling *(Canada Shipping ($6.00) and International Shipping ($10.00.)) Or order Downloadable MP3's** of all four tracks for $21.95.
